PROFESSIONALISM PLEDGE

The International Collegiate Sales Competition defines Professionalism as:

Taking pride in every aspect of your life; never compromising your standards and values; caring about yourself, your family, your friends and business associates; and representing yourself and your university with respect, commitment, and the best possible appearance.

As an attendee of the International Collegiate Sales Competition, I understand that I am held to a high level of Professionalism. Simply remembering my purpose and why I am here is enough to know how to conduct myself in a variety of situations. As such, I pledge to:

1. Be on time to every event in which I am scheduled to participate.
2. Conduct myself professionally in both my behavior and my speech.
3. Adhere to the highest standards of integrity with respect to the competition.
4. Dress professionally for the career fair and during role plays or case presentations.
5. Keep in mind that there are others at this hotel and keep noise to a minimum, especially during hours when others are likely to be sleeping.
6. Not consume alcohol if I am under 21 and exercise moderation if I am over 21, keeping in mind that potential employers are always around.
7. Be mindful that when networking during the competition and/or after hours I am to avoid any speech or actions that could be considered offensive or as sexual harassment.
8. Not engage in any activity that is illegal or would potentially cause harm to myself or others.
9. Take responsibility for all my actions.
10. Understand that any lapses in professionalism may come with consequences, including the possibilities of not competing, being asked to leave the premises, having my university suspended from future ICSC competitions or other disciplinary actions.

I, the undersigned, understand and agree to adhere to the guidelines outlined above.
